LAKE CHARLES WOODWORKERS CLUB

Jim Couvillion, President

Bob Ferguson, Treas. & Newsletter Editor

JANUARY 1995

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The December meeting was held in the shop of Norman Robinson on Dolby Street, Lake Charles with 23 attending. Betty Robinson also hosted the wives and guests of woodworkers for a special showing of their creative activities. A special thanks goes to both of our hosts.

Showings of recent creations included:

Bill Tolin Bowls turned of mesquite and walnut.

Ron Stowe Bowl turnings

Dudley Harvey Bandsawn Box

Nemo Robinson Miniature craft items created on a jig saw and lathe-turned perfume holders.

Richard Couvillion Plywood cutout of a reindeer.

Bubba Cheramie A Christmas angel created from a log and plywood.

A photograph of a card table which he designed and built.

Special demonstrations included the following:

Nemo Robinson demonstrated the turning of the perfume holders and their subsequent assembly.

John Perry demonstrated the performance of a new cordless 3/8" drill by Skill. (Warrior Model 2375).

Herbert Crookshank demonstrated the technique for cutting the bevel and miter angles on wide coping. The process required that the molding be cut while being held flat in a compound saw.

NEW MEMBER

We are pleased to announce that we have two new members who joined us at the December meeting. They are Stephen Grindol and Joe Anderson. We are pleased to welcome them to the Lake Charles Woodworkers Club.
